

Oxford City Branch Hugh's News!

(Produced fortnightly by Hugh Deam and Paul Lucas. All contributions are welcome.)

Monday 3rd May 2010.

Outing to Berkshire by Margaret Marsh.

Little did we know that our bell ringing outing to Berkshire would provide such contrasts. From the seldom rung bells of Beedon, to the new rehanging at Peasemore, we enjoyed the lows and highs of bell ringing experiences!

Down a lonely road outside Beedon, somewhere near World's End, is an old 13th century rather charming church of knapped flint. The timber framed bell tower is situated inside and at the rear of the church. The jackdaws had been nesting in the bell chamber and there were cobwebs on the walls. Even the experienced ringers amongst the group found the bells, with their long ropes and small wheels, very challenging to handle.

Then it was on to St Mary the Virgin at Chieveley with its extensive very old graveyard and squat 13th century tower and up the wooden spiral stairs to eight rather nice bells which proved a much more enjoyable experience for the eleven Oxford ringers.

Finally, on to St Barnabas at Peasemore where we were the first visiting band to ring since the rehanging of the bells, and they were beautiful to ring. It was as if these six bells could 'ring themselves'! We found the church full of beautiful flowers and learnt that a prestigious wedding was to be held later that day for David Cameron's sister!

Then it was on to a pub for late lunch – the excellent Bell Inn at Aldworth, which has not been ruined by alterations for smart tourist types, and is favoured by visiting bikers and old car enthusiasts. Like them, we enjoyed the sunshine and beer, and a good Ploughman's lunch!
