A Happy New Year to all our readers !

(Please note: There will be no practice at Headington this Wednesday 13th January, as the ringers are having their late Christmas meal!)

Formal branch ringing events go into abeyance come Advent as the focus understandably switches to individual towers

Marston

Wolvercote

As is to be expected over the Christmas period, services and consequently ringing is concentrated on the same days and near enough at the same times thus presenting a situation that we can only offer to do the best we can as a Branch by way of ensuring that every tower has its services catered for with ringing. Fortunately timings were such this year that some of us were able to get to several towers and thus present a snapshot of the variety of ringing events that take place over the festive period. Contrary to its primary appearance, given the funereal mien of carriage and horses (above), this was actually a wedding at North Hinksey on December 27th!

The First Branch Practice at Iffley (6) on Saturday 9th January 2016

With careworn Christmas trees and holly boughs still strewn along many frontages, it was encouraging that such a goodly number of ringers decided to take their cue from the daffodils, snowdrops, cherry blossom and asparagus which have been emboldened to make an early appearance by the out of kilter weather. It is always something of an inexact science in deciding when best to break the seasonal abeyance in multi-tower ringing get-togethers, but at present we are in an era of having a burgeoning number of ringers who are looking to increase their repertoire of methods and are not fazed by venturing out from their home tower. Attaining a position where we know we can hold such well attended sessions without having to resort to incessantly imploring and badgering people to turn up rarely happens by accident or overnight, so it is all credit to those who have stepped up to the plate and provided a platform from which to build still further upon. We were also shown the brand new quarter peal board that the Iffley ringers commissioned in commemoration of the late Roy Jones who died in 2014.

A Dedication Service at Old Marston

The recently refurbished Marston bells will have a Service of Dedication at St. Nicholas church on Sunday 31st January at 6.00pm. It is planned that there will be ringing on the bells prior to the service from 5.00pm. Naturally, all are welcome to the ringing and service.

Weather permitting, January and February should probably be our two busiest months of the year for sustained Saturday ringing. Upcoming events are listed below. You will see that we have two Plain Bob Major / Grandsire Triples practices, a Plain Bob Triples / Grandsire Triples practice, a Ringing Up & Down practice, two general method practices, a two-tower Ringing Morning outing and a Witney & Woodstock Branch practice which we are welcome to join. As always, it would be inordinately helpful if you are able to let me know in advance if you can attend any of these events and request what methods you most want to ring at the general practice events (Saturday 13th February and Saturday 27th February).

Saturday 16 th January	Ringing Up and Down Practice at Old Marston (6)	10.30am-12noon
